The need to interact with Federal and State agencies is a fact of life for Indiana Small Business.

Six Federal and State agencies have teamed up to provide you with an exclusive opportunity to hear regulatory and resource information directly from those agencies that will help you to comply with the laws and regulations and succeed in the Indiana business environment.

This is important information for Indiana Small Business leadership and their members.

The cost is free, but seating is limited. Reserve a seat today by sending an email to:
Charles.Barrington@irs.gov or calling 574-232-0130.

Include your name, title, organization, telephone number and email address.
